David Ginsberg | Fenway Sports Group Vice Chairman

David Ginsberg became Vice Chairman of the Red Sox upon the closing of the Red Sox acquisition on February 27, 2002. He is also Vice Chairman of Fenway Sports Group, formerly New England Sports Ventures (NESV). Fenway Sports Group owns a portfolio of companies that includes the Boston Red Sox, New England Sports Network, Fenway Sports Management and 50 percent of Roush Fenway Racing (RFR). On October 15, 2010, Fenway Sports Group acquired 100% of Liverpool Football Club (LFC), one of the world's most historic sporting institutions. Mr. Ginsberg serves as Vice Chairman of the Liverpool Football Club and as a member of Roush Fenway Racing's board of directors.

During 2002 to 2010, Mr. Ginsberg headed up the FSG finance committee and provided advice and assistance to Principal Owner John Henry, Chairman Tom Werner and President/CEO Larry Lucchino on business, financial and investment banking issues. He was primarily responsible for arranging and managing FSG's credit facilities and determining FSG's interest rate strategy. Mr. Ginsberg played an integral role in the negotiation and execution of the acquisition of the Red Sox, NESN, LFC, RFR and the sale of the Florida Marlins. He had previously been Vice Chairman of the Florida Marlins starting in 1999.

Beginning in December 2010, Mr. Ginsberg joined FSG on a full-time basis continuing in the above roles. In addition, Mr. Ginsberg is primarily responsible for the ongoing and close oversight of LFC's day-to-day business operations and financial activities and for assisting John Henry and Tom Werner in returning LFC to competitive success and long-term financial stability. Mr. Ginsberg also oversees all merger and acquisition activities contemplated or conducted by FSG; all FSG borrowings, credit facilities and interactions with FSG's lenders and other major financial institutions and is the point-person primarily responsible for coordinating FSG's real estate strategy and for overseeing all FSG real estate transactions. Mr. Ginsberg is also a member of the Overseers Board of the Red Sox Foundation and Mass General Hospital Home Base Program which is dedicated to improving the lives of veterans of the Afghanistan and Iraq wars who suffer from deployment-related stress and traumatic brain injury.

Ginsberg was a Managing Director and a Founding Partner of Raptor Group Holdings from 2008-2010, an investment management company. From 2006-2008 he was the Managing Director of the Special Opportunities Group at Tudor Investment Corp. He served as the Special Advisor to the Chairman and as a Director at John W. Henry & Company (JWH) beginning in 1999 until June 2002. Before joining the Marlins and JWH, Ginsberg was a private investor and consultant. At Global Asset Management (GAM) in London, he started and served as the Managing Director of the Multi-Manager Group, at that time and presently one of the largest funds of funds groups specializing in hedge funds, from its inception in 1989 until 1995. Prior to joining GAM, he was Vice President in charge of the Mergers and Acquisitions Advisory Group at the National Westminster Bank USA, where he began his career as a corporate lender in 1981.

A native of Winthrop, Mass., he graduated from The Northfield Mount Hermon School and received a B.A. from Kenyon College. He later received an M.B.A. with a concentration in finance from the Boston University Graduate School of Management.
