

Join us for a free college-planning webinar

Get the information you need to help students and families plan, prepare, and pay for college

Going to college is a major decision for many families. Wells Fargo offers free access to important information and useful planning tools to help students, families, and anyone interested in supporting those pursuing a higher education.

Please join us for our upcoming session:

Creating a college bound nation

Simplifying the college-planning process is an important topic within educational institutions, non-profit organizations, and the workplace. Advocates for higher education will learn about free college planning resources available from Wells Fargo, along with tips for how they can be used within your organization or community.

Additional webinar topics include:

- Preparing your student for college
- A guide for finding and applying for scholarships
- Funding your student's college education
- Your financial aid journey in 5 steps
- Repaying student loan debt
