WHY IS DELAWARE'S GOVERNMENT SO CLOSELY TIED TO A COMPANY WITH SUCH A CHECKERED PAST LIKE SKADDEN ARPS?

Skadden Said to Have Paid $11 Million to Settle Ukraine Dispute

“It’s a pity that such a well-known company like Skadden even considered to take this case to deliver. This is a dirty, dirty, dirty contract.”

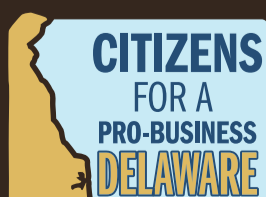

Over the past 3 years, Skadden Arps has named 38 new partners, only 2 of whom are African-American. Skadden Arps’ Wilmington office has ONE African-American Associate or Partner.

Skadden Arps has infiltrated Delaware’s government through campaign donations and political and judiciary appointments. Their influence permeates through each branch of the Delaware judiciary although the firm lacks diversity and pays millions to settle their involvement in political persecution in the Ukraine.

Delaware’s judicial system and the state’s pro-business reputation are at stake. It’s time to shine a light on Delaware’s courts and expose the lawyers and judges who enrich themselves at the expense of hard-working Delawareans.
