"We continued to make substantial progress on our strategic goals by entering into a new relationship with Amazon Web Services (AWS) for our issuer business. Together with AWS, we will deliver an industry-leading, cloud-based platform to institutions worldwide, bringing transformative technologies to all types of issuers and providing consumers with frictionless digital experiences.

We are also delighted to expand our relationship with longstanding partner CaixaBank by agreeing to meaningfully increase our ownership in our joint venture and extending our partnership through 2040."
