DIACC
Progressing the Pan-Canadian Trust Framework (PCTF)

Accelerating Canadian Digital ID

Since 2016, the Digital ID & Authentication Council of Canada (DIACC) has been developing the Pan-Canadian Trust Framework™ (PCTF) in collaboration with many partners.

6 Version 1.0 Final Recommendations as of September 2020

4 Draft Recommendations

- Verified Organization
- Credentials (Relationships & Attributes)
- Infrastructure (Technology & Operations)
- Assessment (Trustmark Scheme)

Model

Notice & Consent

Authentication

Privacy

Verified Person

Glossary

PCTF Components

The PCTF consists of six components as Final Recommendations V1.0, including:

Model	Notice & Consent	Authentication	Privacy	Verified Person	Glossary

---

PCTF by the Numbers

4	41	3400
Years in development	Review & comment periods	Comments received by September 2020
10	6	4
Components in development	Components as Final Recommendation V1.0	Components as Draft Recommendations

---

One Framework, Many Partners

Comments were received from a broad and diverse group of individuals and organizations, both nationally and internationally, including:

Non-profit Organizations

Telecommunication Companies

Financial Institutions /Credit Unions

Insurance Providers

Privacy Advocates

Small-to-Medium Sized Businesses

Provincial & Federal Departments

Independent Representatives

Global involvement includes:
- Canada
- US
- European Union
- Japan
- UK

Join us

Invest in Digital Canada now by becoming a member of DIACC

🌐 diacc.ca   🐦 @mydiacc   in /company/mydiacc   f /mydiacc